SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

28th JULY 2019 - YEAR C

THE SECOND COLLECTION THIS SUNDAY IS FOR THE BISHOP'S FUND
THE SECOND COLLECTION NEXT SUNDAY IS FOR THE LUKAN FUND

AUGUST SECOND COLLECTIONS

For the last few years, the second collection during August has been to bolster our Emergency Fund, which is exactly that. It's for single people and families irrespective of faith or none, to get them out of difficulties. It has proven to be of benefit to many people, and as you appreciate no-one need ever know who they are.

Your generosity has been demonstrated when there is a particular cause and one of the stunning successes was the money you raised for new laptops for the school. The sum you raised was a staggering £6000. This year, part of the focus will again be on the school - the object being to fund music lessons for those children who will benefit from what I like to call music therapy. The reason for this collection is because government funding has been reduced to schools and often the cuts come where it is easiest for the school to wield the scissors.

I can't put a figure on it, but I would like to divide the total between the emergency fund and the school.

All this is optional, and if you want to specify where your offering goes, please indicate by putting in an envelope and putting it through the front door.

Fr Louis

The cinema club raised £41.00 for the Lukon Fund

Hobnob Press have just published my Stourton before Stourhead. It marks the culmination of my 74 year acquaintance with the gardens.

It is not, however, about the gardens. Rather, it asks the question, what was there before the lake was dug and the gardens planted? It has lots of info on Stourton families before 1750, and also on the Roman Catholics of Bonham - one of the few congregations in England which survived from the 16th to the 20th century. Nathaniel Ireson, who subsequently moved to Wincanton, also attracts a mention for his building of Stourhead and his renovations to Stourton church.

Response to Psalm;

Gospel Acclamation:

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

On the day I called,
you answered me, O Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word was made flesh and lived among us;
to all who did accept him.

he gave power to become children of God.

Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

Priests On Holiday

Two priests were going to Hawaii on holiday and decided that they would make this a real holiday by not wearing anything that would identify them as clergy. As soon as the plane landed, they headed for a store and bought some really outrageous shorts, shirts, sandals and sunglasses.

The next morning, they went to the beach, dressed in their "tourist" garb and were sitting on beach chairs, enjoying a drink, the sunshine and the scenery when a drop dead gorgeous blonde in a tiny bikini came walking straight toward them. They couldn't help staring, but when she passed them, she smiled and said, "Good morning Father; good morning Father."

They were both stunned. How in the world did she know they were priests? The next day they went back to the store, bought even more outrageous outfits -- these were so loud, you could hear them before you even saw them -- and again settled on the beach in their chairs to enjoy the sunshine.

After a while, the same gorgeous blonde, wearing a string bikini this time, came walking toward them again. They were glad they had sunglasses, because their eyes were about to pop out of their heads.

Again, she approached them and greeted them individually: "Good morning Father; good morning Father," and started to walk away.

One of the priests couldn't stand it and said, "Just a minute young lady. Yes, we are priests, and proud of it, but I have to know, how in the world did YOU know?"

"Oh Father; perhaps you don't recognize me. I'm Sister Angela!"
