SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 22ND JULY - YEAR B

THE SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEK IS FOR THE LUKAN FUND

IN MEMORIUM

Joan Smith

Many of you will remember Alex and Joan Smith, who lived in Bruton. Alex died in October 2009, and I have just heard from their daughter Hilary who said that Joan died on Wednesday 18th July. Joan & Alex both took an active part in this parish, both in the choir and for Joan, children's liturgy. In her 80s, she was still taking part in children's liturgy! Her Requiem Mass will be on Thursday 26th July at 3.00pm at The Church of the English Martyrs, Chard.

James Daniel

Died on 14th July. Jim had been a parishioner, again in the Chard parish, until 14 or 15 years ago when he and his wife, Elizabeth moved to Wyke Champflower to live with their daughter, Noreen who took great care of them. Elizabeth died in November 2014, and Jim's funeral service will take place at 11.00am on Tuesday 24th July here at St Luke's, and he will be buried in Chard cemetery with his wife.

Fixed Term post for a Schools Project Officer

The Schools and Colleges Department are looking to appoint a suitable person to the above position, ideally from September.

The position will initially be for a fixed term period of 2 years and will be on a term time only basis. Further details are available on the diocesan website www.cliftondiocese.com

Sunday 22nd July - Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Response to Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice says the Lord,
I know them and they follow me.

Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon:

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful, has made a memorial of his wonders; he gives food to those who fear him.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The 'shepherds' that Jeremiah speaks against must have only thought about themselves. It seems that God's people have not been taken care of: the sheep have not been at the heart of the shepherds' mission. Notice who takes over! The Lord will be the shepherd; he will be the one to watch over and care and love and lead... the Lord now sets the benchmark for shepherding. Don't we see that reflected in the familiar psalm? We could use this Sunday's readings to pray for those who shepherd us, who reflect the care of Christ to us and who seek to enable us to find Christ. Let's pray for our priests in their mission of preaching and teaching, and their mission of enabling us to encounter the love of the Lord. Let's pray that they find time for that 'lonely place' to encounter the Good Shepherd, to know his tenderness and look to the example he gives. May our priests know the love of Christ and seek to be like him in the way they radiate Christ's care to those they watch over.
